

The Metropolitan Center

School of International and Public Affairs

Delivering information and expertise that help forge solutions to urban problems.

Delivering information and expertise that help forge solutions to urban problems.

Cordially invite you to attend:

What if Our Luck Runs Out? Hurricane Risk, Preparation, and Mitigation Entering the 2013 Atlantic Hurricane Season

Thursday, June 27, 2013
8:00 AM Registration

Event Time: 8:30 AM – 11:30 AM

FIU Broward-Pines Center
17195 Sheridan Street, Room 111
Pembroke Pines, FL 33331

Topics to include:

Homeowner's insurance, hurricane risk, reinsurance rates, and public perceptions of risk and mitigation.

Seating is limited and pre-registration is required.

Registration is free.

Continental breakfast will be provided.

Free parking is available at the Broward-Pines Center.

SPEAKERS:

Mr. Carlos Lacasa

Chairman, Board of Governors
Citizens Property Insurance Corporation

Rep. Frank Artiles

Representative, District 118
Florida House of Representatives

Mr. Frank Kowalski

Incoming President
Independent Insurance Agents of South Florida (IIASF)

Mr. Michael Lyons

Founder & CEO
Weston Insurance Holdings Corporation

Dr. Maria Ilcheva

Senior Research Associate
FIU Metropolitan Center

MODERATOR:

Ms. Maria Mallory White

The Sun Sentinel

RSVP to (954) 438-8603 or email: jwebb017@fiu.edu