

Women in Miami-Dade County Economic Opportunity

In 2018, 67.7% of women in Miami-Dade County worked full-time, a 0.6% increase from 2017. Overall, the percentage of women who worked full-time in MDC is larger than in Florida (62.8%) and the U.S. (61.1%).

Labor Force Participation by Age (2018)

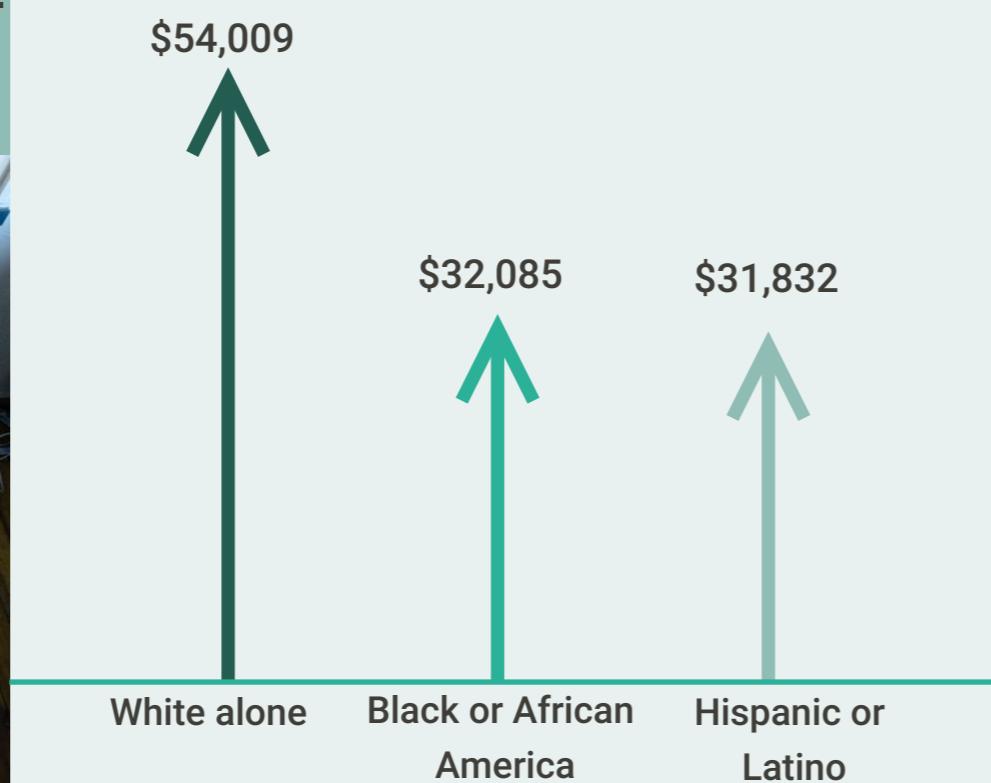

Median Earnings and Earnings Gaps (2018)

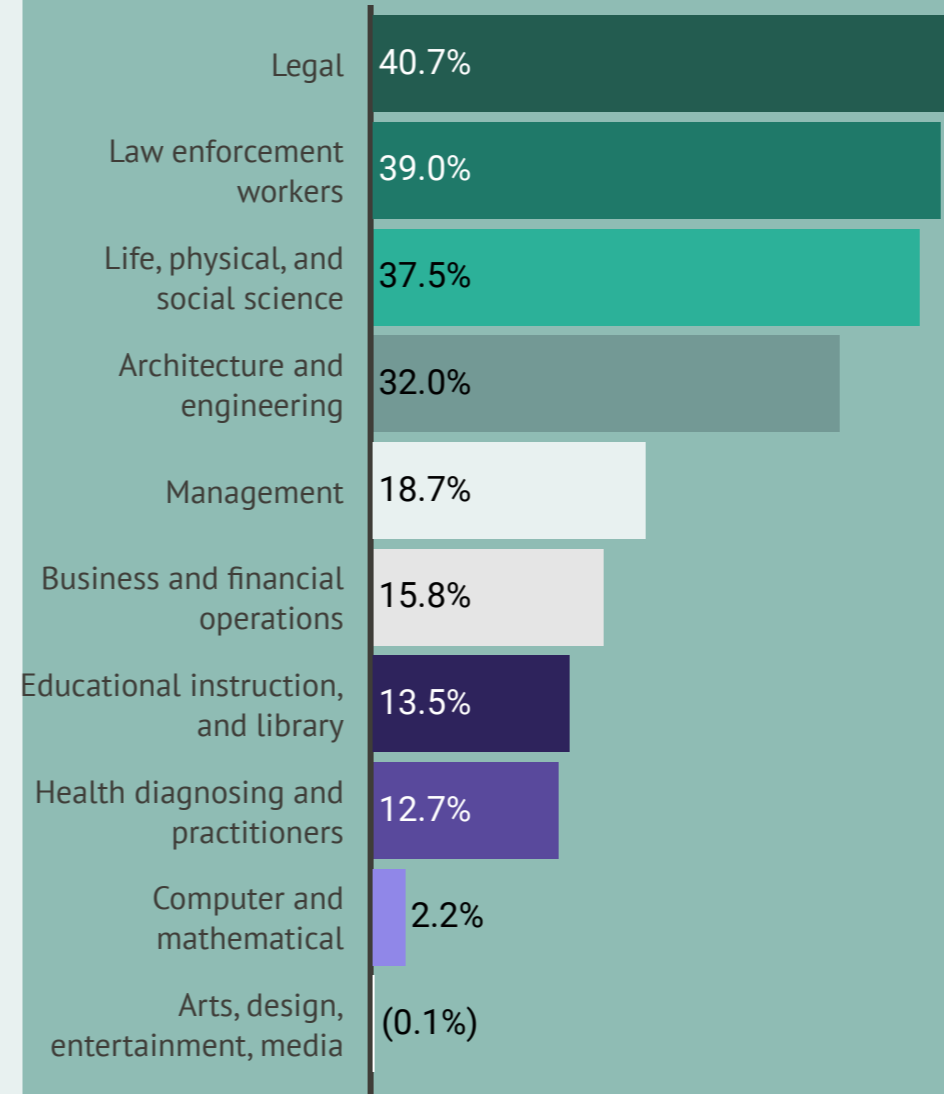

Income Disparities for Female Workers by Race (2018)

White, non-Hispanic full-time female workers earned 40.6% more than Black female workers and 41.1% more than Hispanic female workers.

Earnings Gaps by Occupation among the 10 Highest Earning Professions (2018)

Despite the wage growth in all ten top earning occupations for women, the wage gap still persists in nine of the ten. Moreover, the gaps are typically largest in the highest earning occupations.

Earnings Gaps by Industry (2018)

Industry	MDC Median Earnings	MDC Gap	US Gap
Educational services, and health care and social assistance	$37,567	19.7%	21.5%
Finance and Insurance, and real estate and rental and leasing	$46,643	15.6%	32.6%
Arts, entertainment, and recreation, and accommodation and food services	$23,818	17.8%	16.6%
Other services, except public administration	$21,424	29.4%	22.6%
Retail trade	$26,418	18.6%	21.9%

Earnings Gaps by Municipality (2018)

